

Happy Pill

27 2 5

Chapter 1 by Sam I am

Depression hurts. It takes away every ounce of joy you behold. It makes the happiest smiles turn to the darkest frowns. It turns the softest hearts into solid rocks. The bluest skies turn dark and stormy. That's why I have to take my happy pills. They help me to be happy again. But depression isn't like that. It's never like that. Depression...

Chapter 2 by josie

Depression is real. Depression doesn't care if you are young, old, happy, sad, or whatever your case is; Depression can come at any given moment, some might not get it, but some do. It comes and goes on it's own terms, unless you get 'The Happy Pill'

Chapter 3 by Jessica A Smith

Depression is a scalpel that digs deep and cuts the ties linking your emotions your your brain. Suddenly everything is gray. Your colorless world is enough to make you cry in despair or scream in anguish or just sit and rock in silent misery. And it feel slike the only thing that will every reconnect your emotional strings is "The Happy Pill".

And they say not to take it. They say to eat healthy and take vitamins and herbal supplements. But you've tried all that before.
